

BetterInvesting's
Coastal Georgia/South Carolina Chapter

Event Cancellation Policy

If a participant cancels:

If a participant submits pre-registration fees for an event and cancels, requesting a refund, the following policy shall be in effect:

For cancellations and requests for refund received prior to the pre-registration deadline, participants shall receive a full refund of fees paid.

For cancellations and requests for refund received at least eight days prior to the event(s), participants shall receive a 75% refund of fees paid.

For cancellations and requests for refund received more than two days prior to the event and less than eight days prior to the event, participants shall receive a 50% refund of fees paid.

For cancellations and requests for refund received taking place less than two days prior to the workshop, no refund will be available.

For requests for refund for those not attending the event (with no prior notice, as explained above), no refund will be available.

If the chapter cancels:

The chapter will refund all registration fees.